

2025 Hokkaido University – University of Massachusetts Amherst

Post/Imperial Political Ecosystems:

How Our World Has Been Shaped

TIME:

9:00-11:00 a.m. in Hokkaido (Day 1)

8:00-10:00 a.m. in Hokkaido (Day 2)

19:00-21:00 p.m. in Amherst

DATE:

Day 1 Thursday 6 March in Amherst

Friday 7 March in Hokkaido

Day 2 Monday 10 March in Amherst

Tuesday 11 March in Hokkaido

Organisers: Hokkaido University and University of Massachusetts Amherst

Zoom Registration

*On-site Venue: Rm#403
Slavic-Eurasian Research Center, HU

Day 1

Day 2

CONTACTS:

HU ▶ Taena Uemura, Office for International Collaborations (taenau@oia.hokudai.ac.jp)

UMA ▶ Eric Wirth, Office of Global Affairs (ewirth@umass.edu)

NOTES: - Open to the public, welcoming undergraduate and postgraduate students at both universities
- No Japanese translation provided

OVERVIEW

Researchers in Humanities and Social Sciences at Hokkaido University (HU) and the University of Massachusetts Amherst (UMA) discussed possible research collaborations on 23 October 2024. They agreed to hold an online event reconsidering the meaning of the twentieth century and how the ends of empires have shaped the global crisis we are facing today. This event's focus on the Middle East, Slavic Eurasia, and Japan will help us reveal the multilayered complexity of the international system where local and regional events have become tectonic changes in world history. This joint online workshop event is open to the public. We welcome HU and UMA members, including students, to cultivate inter-university interdisciplinary collaborations.

PROGRAMME

	JST	EST
DAY 1	9:00	19:00	10min. Opening remarks Executive Vice President (International Affairs) Aya Takahashi, HU Vice Provost for Global Affairs Kalpen Trivedi, UMA
	9:10	19:10	45min. Session #1 The twentieth century reconceptualised in Asia and the Middle East Moderator: Prof Yoko Aoshima, Slavic-Eurasian Research Center, HU Prof Norihiro Naganawa, Director, Slavic-Eurasian Research Center, HU Prof David Mednicoff, Chair, Department of Judaic and Near Eastern Studies, UMA Prof Andrew March, Department of Political Science, UMA
	9:55	19:55	5min. Q&A
	10:00	20:00	45min. Session #2 Post-imperial legacies: Japan's end of empire, transnational migration, and comparative contexts Moderator: Prof Hyunjoo Naomi Chi, Graduate School of Public Policy, HU Lecturer Jonathan Bull, Research Faculty of Media and Communication, HU Associate Prof Garrett Washington, Director of Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion / Department of History, UMA
	10:45	20:45	5min. Q&A
	10:50	20:50	10min. Wrap-up for Day 1 Prof Norihiro Naganawa, Director, Slavic-Eurasian Research Center, HU
DAY 2	8:00	19:00	10min. Reflection from Day 1 Prof David Mednicoff, Chair, Department of Judaic and Near Eastern Studies, UMA
	8:10	19:10	45min. Session #3 Ukraine in post-imperial politics Moderator: Prof Ina Ganguli, Department of Economics, UMA Senior Lecturer Bogdan Prokopovych, Isenberg School of Management, UMA Prof Yoko Aoshima, Slavic-Eurasian Research Center, HU
	8:55	19:55	5min. Q&A
	9:00	20:00	60min. Panel discussion Moderator: Prof David Wolff, Slavic-Eurasian Research Center, HU Prof Norihiro Naganawa, Director, Slavic-Eurasian Research Center, HU Prof Andrew March, Department of Political Science, UMA Senior Lecturer Bogdan Prokopovych, Isenberg School of Management, UMA Prof Yoko Aoshima, Slavic-Eurasian Research Center, HU
	10:00	21:00	10min. Closing remarks Executive Vice President (Research) Tsuyoshi Setoguchi, HU Associate Prof Pari Riahi, Associate Dean for Research & Engagement, College of Humanities & Fine Arts, UMA

SPEAKERS

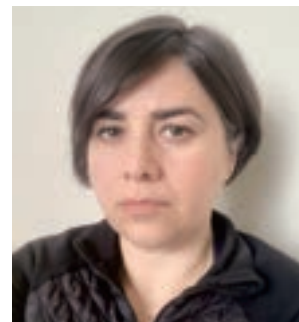

Prof Aya Takahashi
Executive Vice President
(International Affairs)
HU

Prof Tsuyoshi Setoguchi
Executive Vice President
(Research)
HU

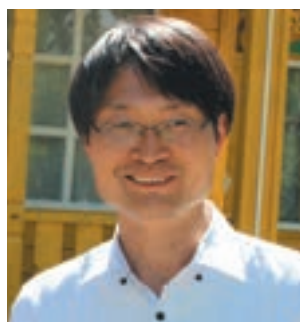

Dr Kalpen Trivedi
Vice Provost for Global Affairs
UMA

Associate Prof Pari Riahi
A/Dean for Research & Engagement
College of Humanities & Fine Arts
UMA

Prof Yoko Aoshima
Slavic-Eurasian Research Center
HU

Prof Norihiro Naganawa
Director
Slavic-Eurasian Research Center
HU

Prof David Mednicoff
Chair, Dept. of Judaic
and Near Eastern Studies
UMA

Prof Andrew March
Department of Political Science
UMA

Prof Hyunjoo Naomi Chi
Graduate School of Public Policy
HU

Lecturer Jonathan Bull
MJSP / Research Faculty of Media and Communication
HU

Associate Prof
Garrett Washington
Director of Diversity, Equity, &
Inclusion / Dept. of History, UMA

Prof Ina Ganguli
Department of Economics
UMA

Senior Lecturer
Bogdan Prokopovych
Isenberg School of Management
UMA

Prof David Wolff
Slavic-Eurasian Research Center
HU

