

7/22^{Tue}~25^{Fri}

Ipean Rok!

"Let's eat!" in the Ishikarai Ainu Dialect

Ohaw means "soup" in the Ainu language. A traditional dish passed down through generations. Ingredients vary, including deer, bear, fish, wild plants, and vegetables.

Main ingredients: Yukkam(deer meat), wild vegetables, korkoni (butterbur)

Coop
Member

198 Yen tax incl. 237 Yen tax incl. non-member

Yukkam Ohaw

Ainu Food Fair

The "Ipean Rok!" Fair is bringing Ainu culture to campus through contemporary Ainu cuisine!

Coop
Member

99 Yen tax incl. 118 Yen tax incl. non-member

Rataskep

Dishes made by combining various ingredients. Served during rituals and ceremonies. Continuously updated through seasonal and personal variation.

Main ingredients: kampoca (pumpkin paste), kimi (corn), red kidney beans

Coop
Member

660 Yen tax incl. 792 Yen tax incl. non-member

Spicy Ezo-Deer Curry

Curry is a staple dish in many modern Ainu households. This version uses Ezo deer meat. Meat provided by Shigeki Amanai, president of the Shiranuka Ainu Association.

Main ingredients: Yukkam(deer meat)

